Is God Unjust?

Romans 9:14-18

Discussion Questions

Why is it important to affirm the biblical teaching on the holiness of God? How is God's holiness a truth to rest in while considering the topic of unconditional election?

Why is Paul's question in v. 14 proof that the Bible teaches unconditional election? Why do you think this doctrine produces so many questions and challenges?

Where does Paul turn to demonstrate God's righteousness in election? Why is God's word our priority for understanding truth? What role ought believers from the past and present play in our understanding of doctrine?

What does God's proclamation of himself in Exod. 33:19 teach us? How does this passage demonstrate unconditional election? How was this a comfort to Moses and a comfort to us today?

What is v. 16 teaching? How does this go against human free will - the teaching that man has the ability to choose God? What is the appropriate response to God's salvation being his sovereign grace alone?

John Stott writes in light of this passage, "The wonder is not that some are saved and others not, but that anybody is saved at all." What is your response to this statement?
